The COURT REPORT

Grand Jury Returns 61-Count Indictment against 18-year-old Christopher Kincaid for preying on women during crime spree in the 6th District (PSA 601; Case Number F2975-03)

On October 3, 2003, Christopher Kincaid, 18, of N.E., Washington, D.C., was arraigned in D.C. Superior Court before the Honorable Geoffrey Alprin on sexual abuse, kidnaping and robbery charges returned in a 61-count indictment by a grand jury in August 2003. The indictment charges, among other things, multiple counts of First Degree Sexual Abuse while Armed with a gun, Kidnaping while Armed with a gun, Armed Robbery, First Degree Burglary while Armed with a gun, Assault with a Dangerous Weapon and Possession of a Firearm during a Crime of Violence, and Conspiracy. In addition, Kincaid was indicted on two aggravating circumstances on each of the sexual abuse counts, any one of which would make him eligible for life without the possibility of release if convicted at trial.

Specifically, the indictment alleges that between April 21, 2003, and May 21, 2003, in the 6th District, specifically in PSAs 601, 602, and 603, Christopher Kincaid, along with Lamont Randolph, on 12 different occasions with at least 16 different victims, preyed on women, often as they were on their way to work or school in the morning. As charged in the indictment, early in the crime spree, Kincaid and Randolph conspired to rob the women, most often at gunpoint; they became bolder over time, and escalated to raping and kidnaping or attempting to kidnap the women, in addition to robbing them. Randolph has already pled guilty to charges that will require him to face up to 59 years in prison.

Dock Lee Higginbottom, age 59, sentenced to ten years for bloody assault on neighbor at the Capitol View Terrace apartments in July, 2002 (PSA 605; Case F4365-02)

On October 10, 2003, Dock Lee Higginbottom, age 59, formerly of S.E., Washington, D.C., was sentenced to a total of ten years in prison by Superior Court Judge Russell F. Canan in connection with the assault of Tommy Bennett, age 46 at the time, on July 10, 2002. A Superior Court jury convicted Higginbottom of aggravated assault while armed, assault with a deadly weapon, and possession of a prohibited weapon, on October 22, 2002.

The evidence presented at trial established that Bennett and Higginbottom were neighbors in the Capitol View Terrace apartments and had been drinking together earlier on the evening of the assault. At one point, Bennett couldn't find ten dollars that a friend had given him. Higginbottom suggested that Bennett look in his own apartment, which Bennett did.

Bennett couldn't find the money in his own apartment, so he returned to Higginbottom's apartment, knocked on the door, and asked to look inside again. Higginbottom responded by slamming Bennett's fingers in the door; the tips of two fingers ultimately were amputated. Higginbottom then grabbed a length of pipe with one hand, and a hammer with another, and proceeded to viciously beat Bennett on the head, chest, back and stomach with both. The assault commenced in Higginbottom's doorway, but continued in the hallway, as Bennett backpedaled and held his arms up in a desperate bid to protect himself. Witnesses testified to hearing Bennett scream in pain, and seeing blood lining the hallway from Higginbottom's door to the stairway, down which Bennett escaped.

Besides the amputated finger tips, Bennett suffered severe lacerations on his face and back, extensive head swelling and memory loss. He was hospitalized for ten days and was required to undergo several surgeries to partially repair his injuries.

Lamont Johnson and Marlon Haight found guilty of Armed Assault with Intent to Kill for an October 2000 shooting in Lincoln Heights (PSA 603; Case Numbers F6415-01 and F334-01)

On October 8, 2003, a Superior Court jury of the District of Columbia found Lamont Johnson of 16th Street, N.W., Washington D.C. and Marlon Haight also of Washington D.C., guilty of assault with intent to kill while armed and related offenses for an October 11, 2000, shooting of Franklin Winston that occurred in the Lincoln Heights area of N.E., Washington, D.C. Johnson and Haight will be sentenced on December 11, 2003, before the Honorable Maurice Ross. Each man faces a mandatory minimum of five years incarceration and a maximum sentence of more than 50 years.

According to the government's evidence, after arguing with Mr. Winston in the 300 block of 50th Street, N.E. , Johnson returned to the area in a car driven by Haight, jumped out, and fired a semi-automatic pistol numerous times across a basketball court where Winston stood. Winston suffered a gunshot wound to one leg. Numerous civilian bystanders escaped significant injury. An off-duty police officer returned fire, but Johnson and Haight sped off, eluding police efforts to stop them.

After a detailed investigation, detectives with the Metropolitan Police Department's Sixth District identified Johnson and Haight as the suspects, just as both men had made arrangements to have the get-away car's appearance altered dramatically. They were arrested soon thereafter.

Raq Baxter and Darion Ingram receive lengthy prison sentences after being convicted for the rape and beating death of Kenneth Muldrow, Jr., in the 4600 block of Central Avenue, N.E. (PSA 603; Case Numbers F5928-01 and F2985-02)

On October 24, 2003, Superior Court Judge Patricia Broderick sentenced two defendants in connection with their involvement in the July 2003, murder of Kenneth Muldrow, Jr. On July 25, 2003, a jury convicted defendants Raq Baxter, Darion Ingram, and Kevin Dobbins for their roles in the rape and beating death of Kenneth Muldrow, Jr., in the 4600 block of Central Avenue, N.E., Washington, D.C.

At approximately 10:30 p.m. on December 8, 2000, in front of 4609 Central Avenue, N.E., Washington, D.C., Mr. Muldrow was beaten to death by the defendants over a 20-30 minute period of time. In furtherance of their attack, various of the defendants dragged Mr. Muldrow from the street to the area of some bushes, where he could less-visibly be seen. In the course of that fatal beating, the defendants, acting individually and in concert with one another, relentlessly struck, kicked, beat, hit, stomped, and tortured the young, unarmed, and helpless Muldrow, using their fists, elbows, shod feet, a vacuum cleaner, a vase, a trash can, a lamp, and a metal pole.

At the conclusion of this attack, members of the group sodomized Mr. Muldrow by shoving a 31 inch metal pole into his anus. Six inches of this pole remained inside Mr. Muldrow at the time of autopsy. Mr. Muldrow was still – barely – alive at the conclusion of the attack, and at the time he was impaled with the metal pole. The jury convicted Baxter of First Degree Sexual Abuse While Armed, Second Degree Murder While Armed, and Felony Murder While Armed. The jury convicted both Mr. Dobbins and Mr. Ingram of Second Degree Murder. At the sentencing hearing, Judge Broderick sentenced Baxter to 40 years incarceration for Felony Murder While Armed, 30 years incarceration for Second Degree Murder While Armed, and 10 years for First Degree Sexual Abuse While Armed. The later two sentences are to run consecutively to each other, and concurrently to the first sentence.

Defendant Darion Ingram received a sentence of 20 years incarceration for the charge of Second Degree Murder. Ingram is already serving 18 years incarceration for an unrelated shooting in which he was convicted by another jury of Assault With Intent to Kill, and related charges. These two sentences are to run consecutively to each other.

Co-defendant Kevin Dobbins will be sentenced on January 9, 2004, at 9:30 a.m. before Judge Broderick.

Shanita D. Sanders Pleads Guilty to One Count of Attempted Uttering (PSA 603; Case Number F-5400-03)

On October 15, 2003, Shanita D. Sanders of Washington, D.C., pled guilty to attempted uttering. The government's investigation revealed that on September 4, 2003, the defendant entered the Industrial Bank at 125 45th Street, NE, in Washington, DC, and attempted to cash a check #1098 in the amount of $800 from the account of the Carver Terrace Community Development Corporation. The defendant endorsed the back of the check. She was told by the bank teller that she could not cash the check without two forms of identification with photographs. The defendant then left the bank.

Moments later, the defendant entered the same bank, went up to a different teller, and attempted to cash the same check #1098 that she had previously attempted to cash. The second bank teller compared the signature on the check – which purported to be that of Mark Phillips, one of the account holders – with the signature in the bank computer system and concluded that the two signatures did not match. The teller then called the account holders, who informed the teller that check #1098 had been missing, that they had not given the defendant any checks or permission to cash any checks, and that the signature on the check was not the signature of Mark Phillips.

The defendant was placed under arrest, and a search incident to arrest revealed that defendant had in her possession another check #1097 in the amount of $800 from the account of the Carver Terrace Community Development Corporation. This check also bore a false signature which purported to be that of Mark Phillips, one of the account holders.

After being advised of and waiving her Miranda rights, the defendant stated that she had obtained the checks from Lajoyina Thompson, who is a friend of the defendant. The defendant stated that Ms. Thompson gave her the checks and told her to cash them. The defendant also stated that she knew the checks did not belong to Ms. Thompson. Ms. Sanders will be sentenced on December 8, 2003, by Judge Frederick H. Weisberg.

Dean Belcher pleads guilty to one count of Attempted Second Degree Burglary and a bail reform act violation (PSA 603; Case Number F-4459-03) and (PSA 605; Case Number M-6336-03)

On October 14, 2003, Dean Belcher of Washington, D.C., pled guilty to attempted second degree burglary and misdemeanor bail reform act violation. The government's investigation revealed that on July 19, 2003, at approximately 11:15 p.m., Belcher, entered a private residence in the 4900 block of Eads Place, NE, Washington, DC, during a time when no one was at home, and without the permission of the owner. The defendant entered the home by climbing onto a chair and breaking a window at the side of the house. As the defendant came out through the front door of the house carrying a bag, he was observed by a witness who asked him what he was doing there. The defendant said he was waiting for someone, then dropped the bag on the floor, left the house, jumped the fence, and ran. The witness who saw him had seen the defendant before, and recognized him when she saw him.

On or about July 18, 2003, Belcher, previously having been released pursuant to the provisions of Title 23 of the District of Columbia Code in Superior Court Case Number M5120-03, a misdemeanor case, willfully failed to appear before the Court as required. Belcher will be sentenced on December 16, 2003, by Judge Thomas J. Motley.
